REPLY TO ATTN OF: George C. Lannon, Consul

SUBJECT: W/W John J. Sullivan

EXCISE

TO: F I L E

The Duty Officer called me on Sunday, August 23, 1981, and informed me that Post #1 had received a call concerning the W/W of John J. Sullivan, in response to the ad placed in the Sunday paper by the Sullivan family.

I spoke to the Marine on duty and he told me that a man identifying himself as [redacted] called and said John Sullivan is alive and being held prisoner. He did not elaborate further. B6

I called the National Police and spoke to Maj. Salvador Palacios, Commander of Servicio de Comando, and advised him of the call. He said he would investigate and would keep me informed of developments.
